PLENTY OF SNOW

January Distribution Was Fav- Financial Assistance Received orable For Late Melting in the Spring.

As a rule, the distribution of snowfall during January was very good, says Alfred H. Thiessen, section director for the teers of America hall on Commercial weather bureau. Most of the correspondents report that considerable snow had drifted in the canyons and gulches and was well packed, a condition favorable for late melting. Some valleys in the great lake watershed were bare of snow, but good amounts were stored in the mountains.

In the Sevier lake watershed good amounts were reported, but a great deal was lost at some places by meiting.

In the Colorado river watershed about average amounts were reported, and water prospects were good.

Following is a resume of Director Thiessen's report for January:

Great Salt Lake Watershed.

Standrod.-The amount of snow in the mountains was above the average. Promontory.—The snow was in good condition to last well. Logan canyon.—The snow canyon.—The snow was solidly packed in the mountains. Millville.—The snow was well drifted and packed, and the outlook was very encouraging. Meadowville.—The month's snowfall was light, though the month's snowfall was light, though the supply in the mountains was solid and fairly well drifted. Farmington.—The snow in the hills was in good condition for keeping. Marion.—The snow was well packed. Castle Rock.—The ground in the valleys was nearly bare, but was well seaked with water. Heaefer.—The snow supply in the mountains near here was considerably drifted, and was as solid as Government creek .- The snowfall in this vicinity was about the average amount. Thistle.—The snow in the mountains was well drifted and packed. Provo.—The snow was apparently well set-tled, but was not stored in drifts. The lower slopes were thinly covered. Alpine.—The depth of snow averaged about b feet. Heber.—The snow was everywhere almost the consistency of ice, even in the Sevier Lake Watershed.

Levan.—The month's weather was warm with light winds, packing the snow evenly, but solidly. Nephi.—The snow was well packed and drifted. Manti.— The snow was fairly well drifted, and was quite well packed, owing to the warm days. Scofield.—The snow supply was exceedingly hard, the thaw of the 24th and 25th settled it so that it would bear a storm of the 24th and 25th settled it so that it would bear a storm of the 24th and 27th. horse; 13 inches fell on the 26th and 27th which was blown and driven solidly into the guches. Sunnyside.—The snow was well packed. Kanosh.—The snow was well packed, being in a good condition to last well. Black Rock.—The snow was somewhat drifted, though not solidifed by freezing; in fact the loss by melting has been great so far. Scipio.—The valley was covered with snow, and the mounwas plentiful owing to warm weather Oak City.—The mountains were covered from three to four feet deep. Annabella.— There was plenty of snow in the mountains. Koosharem.—The snow was well settled and frozen solidly. Richfield.— The snow was exceptionally well packed having fallen early in the winter. Saling in the mountains was above the averagand was very solid. Frisco.-The snow was very hard and solid, though not well drifted in great quantities as is usua here. Marysvale,—Thawing spells were frequent, but about four feet of snow re-mained in the mountains. Parowan,—The snow was packed well in the ravines, and the outlook for water was splendid. dena .- The ground in the valley was bare.

Green and Colorado Rivers.

Dyer Mountain (Uintah county) .- The snow was so deep definite information was not obtainable. Vernal.—There was more snow than usual in the neighboring packed. Elkhorn Ranger Station (Uintah county).—The amount of snow was about average, and was stored favorably for late melting in spring. Green River,—The snowfall was very light. Loa.—The snow was drifted and well packed, and the water prospects were very good. Tropic.—The snow was solid and well packed, five feet deep. Hite.—Snow was plentiful in the mountains. Panguitch,—The snow was in good condition to keep. Grayson.— The snow in the mountains was above average and well packed.

From Unexpected Source Late Yesterday.

When hope that sufficient money would be raised to pay the rent of the Volunstreet had almost fled from the hearts of the valient band of workers that has lifted so many unfortunates from the 'Slough of Despond," help came from an unexpected quarter yesterday, and the movement gained a new lease of life. Mrs. Tom Mackey, in charge of the work here, had almost despaired of raisple who had promised to assist finan-cially went back on their word at the last minute. But late yesterday the Volunteers were made joyful by the promise of a well-known business man that he would meet any deficiency in the subscription. The February rent will be paid The business man who came forward so nobly at the last moment has been impressed by the good work which the Volunteers have done in Salt Lake. He is an employer of many men, and among thos who were in his employ some time ag was one man who was addicted to the Appreciation Is Expressed.

The meeting at the little hall on Commercial street was well attended last night. It was a time of rejoicing, especially for the little band that has been engaged for many months past in adding those down and out. Mrs. Tom Mackey, her voice almost choked by sobs of joy, gave expression to her feelings in a little thanksgiving sermon.

the thanksgiving sermon.

"If we accomplish as much good during the coming month as we accomplished during the past month, I shall feel repaid for all the labor, all the worry, all the heartaches that I have endured," said she. "Usually I don't get out with a hammer, but on this occasion I want to say that there would never have been any difficulty with the paying of rent had those who made promises lived up had those who made promises lived up to them. 'Talk is cheap, but'-perhaps some of you remember the rest of the quotation without my giving it."

The hymn rendered at the close of Mrs. The hymn rendered at the close of Mrs. Mackey's little talk was expressive of the attitude of the workers of the Volunteers of America. "Never Give Up" was the title, and the spirit of it seems to have permeated the little band.

The principal talk of the evening was delivered by Rev. R. M. Cravens, pastor of the Liberty Park Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Cravens took as his text, Matthew xxvii, 22, which deals with the crucifixion of Christ. He stated that Pontius Pilate, the Roman procurator of Judea, had proven himself to be a moral Judea, had proven himself to be a moral coward, unable to withstand the cries and the demands of the mob. "There are two things that are especially dangerous in the world," said he; "the moral coward and the mob."

Dealers Meet at the Commercial Club and Allot Space for Exhibits to Fourteen.

At a meeting of the Automobile Dealers' association, held last night at the Commercial club, plans for the coming auto show, to be held in the Auditorium February 18 to 26, were discussed, and the allotments of exhibition space made. Some of the dealers balked at the idea of ecuring a space numbered 13, and it was iccided to eliminate that number. Four-een spaces were allotted last night, the teen spaces were allotted last night, the dealers drawing for them.

The hall is to be arranged with show spaces along the sides, and three in the center. It is planned to have these in such a manner as to have one space as good as another. The allotments made last night were: No. 1, Utah Motor Car company: No. 2, Utah Implement-Vehicle company; No. 3, Tom Botterill Automobile No. 3, Tom Botterill Automobil No. 4, Sam Sharman Auto com company; No. 4, Sam Sharman Auto company; No. 5, L. M. Gilmer Auto company; No. 6, Consolidated Wagon & Machine company; No. 7, Randall-Dodd Auto company; No. 8, Studebaker Bros. Co. of Utah; No. 9, Raymond-Bracken Auto company; No. 10, The Motor company (White-Savage); No. 11, Taxicab & Auto company; No. 12, Carl Horst Auto company; No. 14, Evans, Hughes & Evans; No. 15, Whitemore Electric Machine & Auto company.

Auto company.

A committee was appointed to go over the floor of the auditorium today and decide upon the best possible manner of arranging the show spaces. All of the local dealers with one exception were present at the meeting last night. Most of the money is now in and the auto show is sure to be a big success.

Almost Certain That Man Who Took Laudanum in Rooming House Was George Showler.

The man who committed suicide Satirday in a rooming house at No. 156 West South Temple street by taking a dose of udanum, was identified in the mortuary f the O'Donnell Undertaking company ast night as George Showler, an un-successful mining man and prospector. Lewis Hirschvogel of No. 242 Third East street identified him. He says that the lead man lived at the home of his mother two years ago, when she conducted a rooming house at Sixth South and Main streets. He is of the opinion that Show-er's wife left him two years ago and ler's wife left him two years ago and went to Seattle, while he returned into the mining districts of Nevada to again struggle for fortune.

Late yesterday afternoon Hirschvogel asked Detectives Harry Curran and Earl Ripley regarding the appearance of the dead man. In return they asked him to describe the man he had in mind. He said that he was a tall, bald-headed man, with a heavy red mustache and heavy eyebrows. They accompanied him to the mortuary where he said he was almost positive the body was that of Showler. The only mark which might lead to identity upon the person of the dead man dentity upon the person of the dead man were the initials "G. S." found on the man's hat band. These correspond with George Showler. It is not known that he has relatives in Salt Lake.

OPEN PURE FOOD DEPOT Soon Possible to Buy Products Complying with Law. Mrs. Tom D. Pitt, national vice president of the Pure Food association, representing the state of Utah, is soon to start a pure food depot at No. 79 South State street, where it will be possible to buy products that are strictly of the pure food order and which have undergone the food order and which have undergone the most rigid government inspection.

Special attention will be paid to meats, milk and fruit, which will be inspected daily before they are placed upon the counter of the pure food depot. There will be everything in the depot that might be purchased in any grocery, but everything will be absolutely guaranteed pure and of the very first quality.

Mrs. Pitt will start the pure food depot chiefly as an example to grocers in general, alming to influence them to be more particular in the sale of products and to

Camp Out in the Forest

PINE-LADEN ATMOSPHERE OF GREAT BENEFIT TO THOSE WHO HAVE CONSUMPTION.

Among the mighty pines of the Adirondack Mountains are hundreds, perhaps thousands, of consumptive people, who have returned to the primitive life of the early pioneer in an effort to recover health. They live in camps built of rough logs, and constantly inhale the fragrant pine-laden air, which has a soothing, healing effect upon the affected organs.

There is a peculiar virtue in pine which makes it a splendid remedy for coughs and colds and other affections of the throat and bronchial organs. This valuable medicinal property is present in the Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, which is a combination of the active principles of pine and santal album

To break up a cold quickly there is nothing so effective as the mixture of two ounces of Glycerine, a half-ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, and eight ounces of pure Whisky. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. The ingredients are not expensive and can easily be mixed at home in a large bottle. It makes enough to last the average family an entire year, and will cure any cough that is curable. If you have any difficulty in securing a pure medicinal Whisky, send forty cents to the Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O., who manufacture the genuine Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, and they will see that you are supplied with a full half pint of pure, straight whisky by prepaid express.

Branch of National Institute Organized at Meeting at Commercial Club Last Evening.

First steps for the organization of a ranch of the National Institute of Amercan Architects, headquarters of which is in Washington, D. C., were taken at meeting of a number of prominent archtects at the Commercial club last night The meeting was in every sense informal and a banquet was served as the star at draft a set of by-laws, which will be presented at the next meeting, to be held Tuesday evening at a place to be named later.

The meeting was presided over by Samuel C. Dallas, and F. D. Rutherford was appointed temporary secretary. Messrs Ware, Cannon, Ulmer, Kent and Erskin were appointed a committee to draw up by-laws for the government of the organization. There were present Messrs. Walker, Brich, Woods, Burton, Pope, Ware, Treganza, Watkins, Hale, Hodgson, Dallas, Ulmer, Kent, McDonald, Cannon, Lepper, Rutherford, Fitzer, Hansem, Erskin and Onderdonk.

Great enthusiasm was manifested over Great enthusiasm was manifested over the new organization, and addresses were made by nearly every one present on the advantages of the movement, and the great benefit to be derived for it. I is hoped that every architect in the city will become a member, and an effort will be made to secure the attendance of as many as possible at the next meet-
